The major reasons for the unsatisfactory performance of Bharat Refractories Limited are :—

(1) under-utilisation in the Refractory Industry due to the projected steel capacity not having come up.

(2) due to the excess capacity in the refractory industry and sever competition the prices quoted by some of the smaller refractory manufacturers are lower than the prices prevalent in earlier years.

(3) increase in the cost of inputs like electricity, raw material etc.

Increase in the amount of depreciation and interest from Rs. 4.56 crores in 1982-83 to Rs. 8.70 crores in 1983-84 and Rs. 8.62 crores in 1984-85.

(c) The steps proposed to be taken to bring about improvements in the working of Bharat Refractories Limited are:—

(1) As the installed capacity of Bharat Refractories Limited is in excess of the demand, steps are being taken to increase the production of higher value refractories in a phased manner so that capacity utilisation improves as well as the sales realisation.

(2) Bharat Refractories Limited is entering into foreign collaborations in order to produce higher value added refractories to meet the emerging demands of the steel plants.

(3) A provision has been made in the Seventh Five Year Plan for the modernisation of Bharat Refractories Limited.
